

2017 YOUTH JOB READINESS TRAINING CALENDAR

Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2017

Updated 3.16.2017

The Georgia TeenWork Internship Program provides Job Readiness Trainings to foster youth, ages 15 – 18, and additional internship opportunities to foster youth ages, 16-18 to support them as they prepare for self-sufficiency and transition into young adulthood. To ensure youth are prepared for their employment this year, it is now MANDATORY for all youth interested in applying for a position with the Georgia TeenWork Internship Program to attend at least one Job Readiness Training. Along with youth attending, youth supporters (providers, foster parents and caregivers) of youth participants must attend the Job Readiness training as well. To REGISTER for one of the 2017 Job Readiness trainings that will be offered this year, please see the calendar and registration link below.
