

You've been nominated for a very special opportunity...the Orange Duffel Bag Coaching Program!

ODB Class Reunion
January 25, 2014 KSU

A comment from one of our ODB Grads

Virginia, Orange Duffel Bag program Graduate

"I learned how to communicate with other people and that not everybody is the same. Throughout the program I got stronger. It taught me how to get through life without making excuses and how to interact with other people. It taught me how to be a leader and how to direct people to the right path instead of the wrong way."

What is it?

A 12-Week Group Coaching Program that takes you and other participants on a journey of a lifetime, each creating your personal Road Map that leads to your best life.

The program is free to all participants. The first and last days of the class are on Saturday and are a full day. Classes 2 through 11 are held on a weekday after school. The last day is a graduation celebration.

Youth who successfully graduate the program will earn an orange duffel bag with a laptop computer.

You definitely want to take advantage of this incredible opportunity to help you develop your road map to success!

How do you participate?

Fill out the application attached and submit to the Orange Duffel Bag Initiative. Your guardian, high school counselor, case worker, or ILP Coordinator can also submit your application upon your request. There are only 25 seats for this next class, and applications must be received at least two weeks before the first day of class.

What's included?

Food will be served at each class.

The ODB Coaching Program is free for all participants.

Where will the classes be held?

Classes 1 & 12 are full Saturdays from 10:00 - 4:00.

Classes 2 - 11 are once a week from 4:00pm - 6:30pm.

All classes will be held on a college campus...details to come.

When are the dates and times of the classes?

Class dates and locations to be announced soon.
