

Do you need help talking to your teen about sex?

MACON

Join our Connected Caregiver Training!

Sex and relationships are an important part of adolescent development and can influence youth outcomes. Join Georgia's Personal Responsibility Education Program two-day trainings:

DAY 1

Talking to teens about sex and healthy relationships and commercial sexual exploitation of children

DAY 2

Competency: Working with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and questioning (LGBTQ) youth in the sex education environment

Register at: RSVPBook.com/CCT2019Macon

March 20 - 21, 2019

9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Macon Training Center

6055 Lakeside Commons Dr. | Macon, GA 31210

For more information, contact Patrice Moss at prep@dhs.ga.gov.