PRESS RELEASE

DEKALB COUNTY JUVENILE COURT HOSTS
“WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU SEE BLUE” VIRTUAL FORUM

On Wednesday, August 5, 2020, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., the DeKalb County Juvenile Court will host a virtual forum, “What To Do When You See Blue.” The forum, geared towards youth and families, will explore the best ways to engage law enforcement and to protect citizens’ civil rights and liberties. The goals of the forum are to promote solution-based dialogue and to ensure safer neighborhoods for all.

“What To Do When You See Blue” features an impressive panel of community leaders and experts: Defense Attorney Keith Adams, Congressman Hank Johnson, Sheriff Melody Maddox, Pastor Calvin McCoy, Jr., Police Chief Mirtha Ramos, and Civil Rights Attorney Chris Stewart. Judge Fatima El-Amin will moderate the discussion.

The virtual forum will broadcast live via the Zoom Webinar platform. The community is invited to join the forum by clicking on the following link: <https://dekalbcountyga.zoom.us/j/92140928988> or by calling 888-270-9936 (code: 566754). Attendees may post questions to the panelists via the Zoom Webinar’s “Chat” feature. The forum will also stream live on the DeKalb County Juvenile Court’s Facebook page.
